Annual Meeting

Quad City Singles are planning for the new year. Our Annual meeting is coming up in January and once again we will be electing new board members. There will be 5 board member terms to fill. Four 3 year terms and One 1 year term. Last year 6 new members joined the team. Wow! This year has been filled with new ideas and activities with all the new enthusiasm from these six. With 5 more new members elected in January, we are in store for an exciting new year. The nominating committee is now being formed. We already have 4 volunteers, however we would like at least 1 more. Also, of course we need nominations to run for the board. Last year we had a HUGE response willing to serve on the board. It's wonderful to belong to an organization that we have so many members willing to be on the board and bring new ideas to our membership. Contact Karen S 332-3645 if you would like to serve on the nominating committee or be nominated for the QC Singles Board. It does seem early to think about January, but the nominating committee wants all members to have enough time to be aware of the election at our annual meeting.
