

8. Social Media Policy

The official communication is the newsletter, the updates and the website. Different social media platforms present additional ways to communicate events to members. Since all members may not participate in the various platforms, they may be used for complimentary communication only.

The Facebook page that the Quad City Singles 40 Plus has will be used to communicate events and other communication. All postings need to be approved by an administrator who is also a Board member.

Board of Directors
Quad City Singles 40 Plus
October 4, 2018